

David Hockney-Henri Matisse: The Color of the World

Enjoy this “conversation” between two great masters who changed the color of this world in order to express her beauty.

Hockney’s work is never far from Matisse’s. Seeing their works together creates surprising echoes particularly in the sensations of lush gardens, of graceful movement, and of the brightness of the French Riviera and California.

A PowerPoint presentation by Jerry Matovcik.

Wednesday, Nov. 16th, 11 a.m. to noon

Mattituck-Laurel Library